A BILL

To award a Congressional Gold Medal, collectively, to the African Americans who served with Union forces during the Civil War, in recognition of their bravery and outstanding service.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “United States Colored 5       Troops Congressional Gold Medal Act”.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress finds the following:

3 (1) Since the colonial era, African Americans
4 have served the United States in times of war.

5 (2) During the Civil War, approximately 6 200,000 African-American men served in the Union
7 Army and 19,000 African-American men served in 8 the Union Navy.

9 (3) During the Civil War, African-American 10 women were not allowed to formally enlist as soldiers 11 or sailors, though they served as nurses, cooks,
12 spies, and scouts for the Union Army and the Union
13 Navy.

14 (4) While African-American men served in the 15 Navy since its establishment, there was resistance to 16 enlisting them to take up arms for the Union Army
17 at the start of the Civil War.

18 (5) As the Civil War dragged on, President
19 Lincoln broke from the previous policy of his admin-
20 istration and determined that liberating enslaved
21 persons “was a military necessity absolutely essen-22 tial for the salvation of the Union”.

23 (6) The Act entitled “An Act to suppress insur-24 rection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and 25 confiscate the property of rebels, and for other pur-26 poses”, approved July 17, 1862 (commonly known

1       as the “Second Confiscation Act”) (12 Stat. 589;
2       chapter 195), and the Act of July 17, 1862 (com-
3       monly known as the “Military Act of 1862”) (12
4       Stat. 597; chapter 201), were the first official au-5       thorizations to employ African Americans in the 6       Union Army.

7                 (7) It was not until January 1, 1863, the effec-
8       tive date of the Emancipation Proclamation issued 9       by President Lincoln, that the Union Army was or-10      dered to receive African-American men.

11                 (8) On May 22, 1863, the United States War
12      Department issued General Order Number 143, 13      which established the Bureau of Colored Troops for 14      the recruitment and organization of regiments of the 15      Union Army composed of African-American men, 16      called the United States Colored Troops (referred to 17      in this section as “USCT”).

18                 (9) Leaders such as Frederick Douglass encour-19      aged African Americans to enlist to advance the 20      cause of citizenship. “Once let the black man get 21      upon his person the brass letters, ‘U.S.’, let him get 22      an eagle on his button, and a musket on his shoul-23      der and bullets in his pocket, there is no power on 24      [E]arth that can deny that he has earned the right 25      to citizenship.”, wrote Douglass.

(10) African-American sailors constituted a significant segment of the Union Navy, making up 20 percent of the total enlisted force of the Navy.

(12) Yet, in practice, most African Americans could not advance beyond lowest ranks of “boy” and “landsman.”

(14) Eighteen members of the USCT and 8 African-American sailors were awarded the Medal of Honor, the highest honor in the United States for bravery in combat.

(15) For generations after the Civil War, the contributions of African Americans in the Civil War were excluded from historical memory.

(17) This memorial, featuring a bronze statue of USCT soldiers, an African-American sailor and family, is surrounded by the Wall of Honor, which lists the names of the members of the USCT.

(18) The African American Civil War Museum is located in the District of Columbia.

(19) Patriots and heroes who rose in service to a Nation that would not fully recognize them, the African Americans who served the Union during the Civil War deserve our recognition for their contributions to the grant of emancipation and citizenship for nearly 4,000,000 enslaved people and the preservation of the Union.
